

Our answer: A bridge between worlds, built by a new generation of artisans.

---

We are inviting a select group of young, passionate individuals from North America to Kyoto.

Here, you will learn authentic building techniques directly from master artisans at local firms specializing in Kyo-machiya restoration.

This is a mission to ensure these skills don't just survive, but thrive.

