

Learn by Doing: A True Apprenticeship from Day One.

This is a formal On-the-Job Training (OJT) program. You will work side-by-side with local Kyo-machiya construction firms on active restoration projects. This practical experience is the fastest path to mastering the intricate techniques of traditional Japanese architecture.