

One Restoration, a Community Reawakened.

This project is a community-led initiative to preserve Kyoto's cultural landscape. Beyond saving a single building, your work contributes to solving the social issue of vacant houses, revitalizing the local neighborhood, and creating a sustainable model that counters disorderly external development.